

Never Alone

Words: Simone Richardson

Music: Philip Percival

1. We're not a - lone, for Christ is here.

walk, earth's darkest day
come, the sun will rise.
lone is now our cry.

Im-ma-nu-el our God come near.
The pressing crowd, his mounting pain.
Our of the grave we'll see hope's light.
In joy, in grief, in lonely sin.

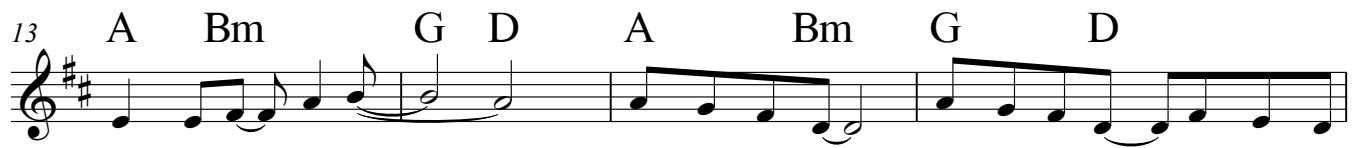

We're not a -
A hea-vy
Tomb o-pened
Ne-ver a - lone, for to our world load of grief and shame wide, stone rolled away.

lone for Christ is ours.

Je-sus has come, e-ter-nal Word.
Breath-less that we should breath a-gain.
Mor-ning has come, a brand new day.
He lives in us, we live in him.

And as he
"Fa-ther, for
"He is-n't
And 'til we speaks, our souls laid bear give them, "comes his cry here," the an-gel said.

reach that fi-nal day,

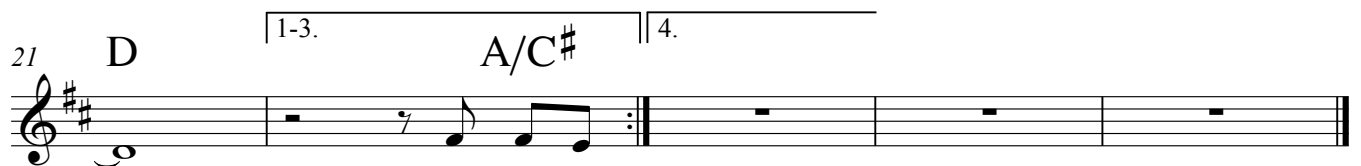

Na-ked, a shamed, sin is made clear. And yet he Si-lence from God bla-ckens the sky. A cree-ping
"He is a-live, no lon-ger dead." Our hearts are When fears are gone, cast far a-way. We'll live se clothes us in his love.

dread in e-very heart
lif-ted, souls raised high.
cure, trust in his love,

Ne-ver a lone,
Lost in the world,
Christ is with us.
Ne-ver a lone,

Christ is with us, is with us.
now God de parts, God de parts
Christ is our life, he's our life.
Christ is with us, he's with us.

2. The lon-gest
3. The dawn will
4. Ne-ver a -